Application for a search of the Register of Educational Endowments

We maintain the Register of Educational Endowments. This is a list of all educational Trusts in Scotland that we know of.

You can only apply for help from a Trust if you meet the eligibility conditions of that Trust. The conditions vary from Trust to Trust, and only the Trustees can decide if you are eligible. For instance, conditions can relate to where you live or were born, what schools you went to, your age, the course you are taking, or the institution (college or university) you are attending. Only the Trustees can decide whether to accept or refuse your application. Most Trusts require applicants to be natives of Scotland, or to be intending to study at an institution in Scotland.

If you want us to search the Register for you, please fill in this form fully in black ink and send it to us at the above address. We will then search the Register for you, and if you meet the eligibility conditions of any Trusts, we will send you their names and addresses. You should then apply straight to the Trusts.
